

January 27, 2010

POSITION AVAILABLE

Director of Development Catawba Science Center, Hickory, NC.

Leads the organization's culture of relationships, with focus on cultivation of relationships, stewardship and fund development for a $1.6 million, nonprofit organization. Four-year college degree required, Master's degree preferred. Proven record of resource growth and strong public speaking skills required. Full-time exempt position, some evening and weekend work required. Salary range: $35,000 - $40,000, dependent on qualifications & experience. Exceptional benefits include medical insurance, retirement program, and more. Detailed job description available upon request. EOE.

How to apply: Send resume with cover letter to Human Resources, via e-mail: search@catawbascience.org.