

NC FOSSIL FAIR 2023

CSC will be hosting this year's Fossil Fair in the Keiser Community Room! Saturday, November 4th be sure to stop by as this event is available to anyone who pays the price of CSC admission. Visit the 25+ exhibitor tables on-site and explore the fascinating fossils of North Carolina! Featuring unique guests like a former Smithsonian Paleontologist, specialists from the North Carolina Museum of Natural Science, Aurora Fossil Museum, & Schiele Museum plus Higher education systems like UNC Wilmington, Appalachian State, & more! A few of Catawba Science Center's animatronic dinosaurs will make an appearance. Guests can enter the FREE raffle to win a real Megalodon tooth and experience a fossil dig to find their own fossils to take home!

The Catawba Science Center is excited to host the 2023 NC Fossil Fair in partnership with the NC Fossil Club on Saturday, November 4, 2023 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. We invite businesses and fossil enthusiasts to help make this event possible for visitors across western North Carolina.

Supporters will help offset event costs, which include facility rental, marketing materials (banner, signage, digital and print media and ads), exhibitor provisions, and more.

Support recognition includes:

Logo on event page on the CSC website, social media event posts, and a prominent sign at the event. Higher Level sponsors will be displayed first and have increased logo size.

- $1000+ will receive 20 FREE CSC admission passes.
- $500+ will receive 10 FREE CSC admission passes.
- $250+ will receive 5 FREE CSC admission passes.
- In-kind donations will receive passes based on contribution value.

NOTE: Passes can be used day of the event and will be good through November 4, 2024.
